CALL TO WORSHIP

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

*Opening Hymn: "Spring has now Unwrapp'd Her Flow'rs" (see insert)

Minister: The Peace of God be with you.

People: And also with you.

EXCHANGE OF PEACE

CONGREGATIONAL PRAYER FOLLOWED BY THE LORD'S PRAYER

Lord, you are like a wild flower. You spring up in places where we least expect you. The bright color of your grace dazzles us. When we reach down to pluck you, hoping to possess you for our own, you blow away in the wind. And if we tried to destroy you, by stomping on you and kicking you, you would come back to life. Lord, may we come to expect you anywhere and everywhere. May we rejoice in your beauty. Far from trying to possess you, may you possess us. And may you forgive us for all the times when we have sinned against you. This we ask in the spirit of your son Jesus, who taught us to pray, saying together: Our Father . . .

DUET

"The Flower Song" from the opera Lakme (1883)
Rose Hegele, soprano; Emerald Barbour, mezzo-soprano

Under Dome canopy sweet jasmine, all the roses forever; Flowers in the morn freshly born call us to come together.

Look, Mallika! Lianes are in bloom casting downward their shadows.

All the roses forever.

Flowers in the morn freshly born call us to come together

Under dome canopy where is the white jasmine.

All the roses forever.

The River flowers in the morn freshly born;

Let us both go down together.

Oh yes, let's go where white swans are swimming and let us pick the lotus blue.

*Consecration of the Flowers, written by the Rev. Norbert Capek, Infinite Spirit of Life, we ask thy blessing on these thy messengers of fellowship and love. May they remind us that amid diversities of knowledge and of gifts, to be one in desire and affection, and devotion to good and beauty. May they also remind us of the value of comradeship, of doing and sharing with one another... May we be strengthened by the knowledge that one spirit, the spirit of love, unites us, and may we endeavor together for a more joyful life for all. In Jesus name we pray, Amen.

*Blessing of the Flowers, written by the Rev. Norbert Capek (revised)

Leader: In the name of Providence, which implants in the seed the future of the flower and in our hearts the longing for people to live in harmony;

People: In the name of the highest, in whom we move and who makes the mother and father, the brother and sister, lover and loner what they are:

Leader: In the name of sages and great religious leaders, who sacrificed their lives to hasten the coming of the age of mutual respect -

People: Let us renew our resolution - sincerely to be real brothers and sisters regardless of any kind of bar which estranges us from each other.

Leader: In this holy resolve may we be strengthened knowing that we are God's family;

All: That one spirit, the spirit of love, unites us; may we endeavor for a more perfect and more joyful life. Amen

- BRISTOL LODGE Our next Bristol Lodge dinner will occur on Wednesday, June 23. Volunteers are needed to make the pineapple-marinaded chicken breasts, salads, and cookies and/or bars as well as help with preparations from 1:30 to 3:15 on the June 23. The chicken recipe is easy and relatively quick and Mary Menino's picky husband gave the recipe 4 1/2 stars. Rice and broccoli will be prepared at the church. Please contact Mary Menino if you would like to donate food or help with preparations (mary.menino@gmail.com or by text 781-894-3165 or by phone 781-894-3165). Copies of the chicken recipe and disposable pans are available to pick up in the Breezeway after worship today or in the vestibule outside the Church Office next week.
- PEACE FLAG MOVEMENT COMES TO WESTON We hope that First Parishioners and friends will pick up a flag from the church and fly it as a symbol of equity and justice for the earth and every culture, race, spirituality, gender, sexuality, ability, and age. There are flags available today or from the vestibule outside the Church St. entrance to the Church Office. (Outer door is never locked.) A donation is not required to take a flag but, if you'd like, you can leave a donation to support the future of the Peace Flag Project when you pick it up. (If writing a check, please make payable to First Parish Church in Weston.) Let's see what we can do to help spread this important message through Weston and beyond!
- FELLOWSHIP THROUGH ART: THE ART WE LIVE WITH If you're here for outdoor worship today, we hope you'll take a few minutes to enjoy works by our four virtual exhibitors that are now hanging in the Rines Gallery. We thank Chris Pullman, Paul Dudek, Katherine Richmond, and Katharine Langenberg who kindly agreed to exhibit some of their pieces for the enjoyment of the congregation.
- UUA GENERAL ASSEMBLY 2021 General Assembly (GA) is the annual meeting of our Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA). Participants worship, witness, learn, connect, and make policy for the Association through democratic process. Again for 2021, GA will take place virtually from June 23 June 27. Anyone may "attend," but registration is required; fee is $200 but financial assistance may be available from the UUA or from Denominational Affairs if you would like to represent First Parish as a delegate. If so, contact Sharyn Lenhart (SALenhart@aol.com).

Jeff Barz-Snell and Sharyn want to draw your attention especially to the 2021 Ware Lecture at GA, which will take place on Saturday, June 26, at 7:00 pm EDT. GA registration is required to view the lecture. Guest speakers this year will be Stacey Abrams and Desmond Meade.
