

Noah

Genesis 6-9

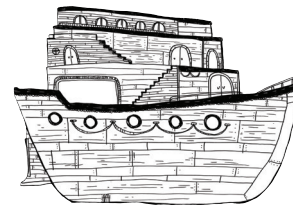

God saw that the people were disobedient, so God decided to flood the whole world. But God saw Noah was righteous! God told Noah to build an ark to save the animals and his own family. Noah obeyed God, built the ark, and brought his family and two of every type of animal onto the boat.

Take a Look

Here are some of the people and things in today's story. What can your child tell you about them?

Noah was the one righteous man in whom God saw that humanity was worth saving (Gen. 6:9).

The ark was built according to very specific dimensions provided by God.

God regretted creating humanity because people became so wicked and violent—until seeing that Noah was still faithful (Gen. 6:6-9).

About the Video

In the video, people didn't believe that Noah had been called by God to build an ark. Noah obeyed God, even though it seemed like it would never begin to rain. Despite the criticism, Noah persevered to build the ark and save his family.

- What was happening in the world around him before Noah built the ark?
- What was it like for Noah, his family, and the animals to live together on the ark?
- When have you obeyed, even if you didn't want to?

Try This!

Build a mini-ark using a plastic bottle or craft sticks. Float it in a sink or bathtub. How many "animals" (coins, pebbles, or plastic figures) can you fit in or on the ark before it sinks?

Prayer

Dear God, sometimes we feel like we are floating in stormy seas. Remind us to trust you during those scary times. Thank you for keeping us safe. Amen!
